RETHINKING THE WORLD OF WORK

The world of work is changing.

'Work' can no longer be defined as a physical space one goes to 9 to 5.

The workplace is wherever and whenever people want it to be, driving the need for access to data, anytime and anywhere.

Yet true connectivity has been elusive, with technology being a barrier rather than an enabler. Until now.

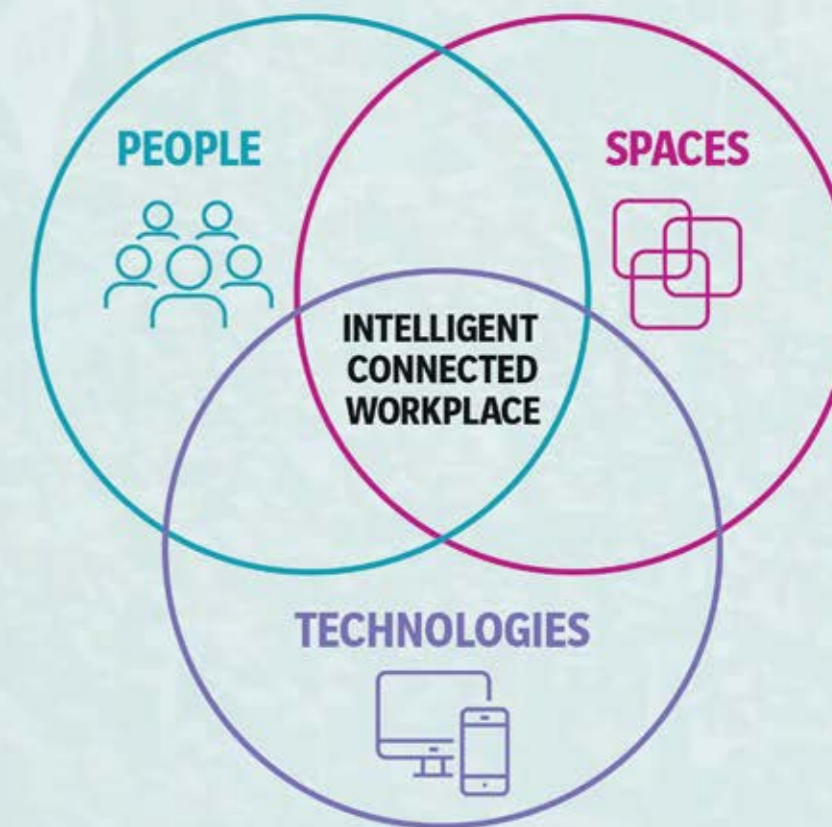

WHAT IS THE INTELLIGENT CONNECTED WORKPLACE?

Konica Minolta believes work is about people, spaces and technology.

Often these pillars are treated as separate entities.

Only by effectively connecting them you can achieve true connectivity.

That is why at Konica Minolta we have adopted the Intelligent Connected Workplace approach.
